UCR PROGRAM FOR
PROFESSOR OF THE GRADUATE DIVISION (PGD)

[Approved by the Division on 5/25/10; recommended changes approved by the Executive Council on 6/17/10. Final approval at the Senate Divisional meeting 11/30/2010]

Background

The Professor of the Graduate Division (PGD) is a program available to UCR retiring/retired faculty who are fully engaged in research and/or other departmental and campus activities and who wish to continue to contribute to UC and UCR with distinction after their retirement from official active faculty status.

The program is modeled on a similar one at UC Berkeley, which has been in place since 1991.

Purpose

To retain and encourage active participation of retiring faculty who are fully engaged in research and/or other departmental and campus activities and who wish to continue to contribute to UCR with distinction.

Privileges

The PGD program carries benefits both to the individuals and to the campus, including:

1. PGD faculty will be identified (in the campus catalog and elsewhere) by the title “Professor of the Graduate Division” rather than “Professor Emeritus/a.”

2. PGD faculty will have the authority to seek outside grants and serve as PI, similar to that of active faculty.

3. PGD faculty can serve as dissertation supervisors and on graduate exam committees; PGD faculty could teach and engage in administrative service. (Note that arrangements for teaching under the UC retirement recall program are negotiated separately from the PGD program; not all retired faculty on recall will hold the title of PGD, and not all holding the title of PGD will be involved in the retirement recall program.)

4. PGD faculty have the departmental voting privileges of Emeriti/ae as established under Senate bylaw 55.

5. The title of PGD carries no remuneration.
6. Office/ laboratory/ clinic/ studio space will be negotiated between the PGD faculty and department chair or research center leadership and dean.
