Retiree Notes

Hi Folks – hope you are enjoying your Summer! As we look forward to our new year, I'd like to share some additional opportunities you may or may not be aware of that help keep you connected to UCR and the University; to introduce you to our new Hospitality Chair; and to let you know that we are planning a few local tours for you this coming year.

CONNECTIONS

I recently signed up to receive our President's Newsletter by e-mail. President Janet Napolitano's newsletter for July included an article on the UC Global Food Initiative that you may find interesting. "The Initiative's ambitious goal is to put the world on a path to feed itself in sustainable and nutritious ways." Who better to contribute to the effort than our great University? Here is the link to subscribe to the newsletter: <http://ucop.edu/president/subscribe.html>

The next link is to our own Staff Assembly: <http://staffassembly.ucr.edu/>

Although Staff Assembly has changed a bit over the past few years, it still is a wonderful organization that gives campus staff an opportunity to have a voice and provide for staff in a number of ways. When you look at the website, consider the Scholarship link or the Society '54 link. Something we might also be able to help support in the future?

Inside UCR: <http://ucrtoday.ucr.edu/category/inside-ucr-getting-personal> and UCR Today: <http://ucrtoday.ucr.edu/> are two other links that may be of interest. Both sites provide opportunities for you to subscribe to e-mail updates on campus stories and activities. Again, another way to remain connected to our University and specifically, our campus.

HOSPITALITY CHAIR

As you know, we have not had a formal 'Hospitality Chair' since Blanche Kruse retired. So, I'd like to introduce Andrea 'Ande' Jones (Music/Political Science) as a new member and as our new 'Hospitality Committee Chair'. She apparently 'missed a meeting' and therefore has 'volunteered' to assume the duties.

I would like to thank Joan Dillon for filling in after Blanche and for recruiting Nini Furst to also provide our table decorations over the past few months. They have both done an excellent job with their arrangements. Thank You Joan and Nini!

FUTURE LOCAL TOURS

And finally, we are in the process of arranging personal guided tours for the following locations this coming year. Tour dates and sign-ups are pending.

Heritage House - built in 1891 and located near the corner of Magnolia and Adams (part of the Riverside Metropolitan Museum and listed on the Landmarks of the City of Riverside)

<http://www.riversideca.gov/museum/heritagehouse/>

Orange Empire Railway Museum - located in Perris, CA since 1959 (the West's largest collection of railway locomotives, passenger and freight cars, streetcars, interurban electric cars, buildings and other artifacts dating from the 1870's) <http://www.oerm.org/>

Center for Social Justice & Civil Liberties - built in 1926 for the Riverside Finance Company (a part of the RCC Library and located on Market Street next to Riverside's downtown White Park)

Continue to enjoy your Summer and hope to see you at our September Luncheon.
