UCR Extension, University Village (EUV)
1299 University Drive, University Village Suite
101, Conference Room 1103 (across from Chase Bank) Riverside, CA 92507

Featuring

Carlos E. Cortés

Professor Emeritus of History, UCR
2021 Panunzio Award Winner

Description

For the past fifty years, inclusive diversity and free speech have been on a collision course. The collision occurred in the 2010's. Every day brings a new angle, sometimes involving free speech, sometimes academic freedom. This presentation will address the often-confounding trajectory of the curious, embattled diversity-speech intersection.

Recommended reading: Carlos E. Cortés monthly columns on diversity and speech in the ezine, American Diversity Report.
